* 10:32 Two words across a page (“haeda” and “sa”) perhaps should have been hyphenated, giving “haedasa” which, together with “haedasa”, occurs eleven times elsewhere in the text. There are no other occurrences of “sa” standing alone. * 11:7 Mid-verse punctuation could be either a colon or semicolon as the lower part of the punctuation is malformed. It was decided to use the semicolon, in line with the KJV, as the punctuation of the two texts often coincides.

* 20:41 "Dāvid" is spelt thus here and in two other places nearby, 20:42 and 20:44. The name is spelt "David" in its other ten appearances in the text. (See note for 13:16.) † 20:42 "Psalms" is capitalized here but not in 24:44, but both are almost certainly deliberate. As per the KJV, "Psalms" in 20:42 is the name of a book in the Bible, but in 24:44 the common noun "psalms" is meant.
